

Abstract: The main goal is to give a strong effective lower bound for the class number of imaginary quadratic fields. I will report on the developments in historical perspective and discuss some of my recent attempts using families of elliptic curves.