

The motivic fundamental group and Diophantine geometry

Abstract: After recalling the construction of a ‘higher p-adic Albanese map’ using the De Rham/crystalline fundamental group of a variety, we will explain how one can relate this to global properties of the etale fundamental group, thereby obtaining Diophantine information in favorable situations.