Abstract:

I will discuss the problem of the absolute convergence of the spectral side of the Arthur trace formula and its relation to certain conjectures about local components of square integrable automorphic representations. The solution of the convergence problem is important for applications of the trace formula in the spectral theory of automorphic forms in the higher rank case.