I will describe a singular perturbation limit for the fractional Allen-Cahn Equation in the nonlocal regime. The convergence happens to be strong towards stationary nonlocal minimal surfaces. The argument is based on a deep geometric measure theoretic argument.