

Speaker: Edgar Costa

Title: Effective computation of Hodge cycles

Abstract: In this talk, we will overview several techniques to compute the Hodge cycles on surfaces. We will start by studying the self-product of a curve, with the goal of computing the endomorphism of its Jacobian. We will follow this with the problem of computing the Picard lattice of a $K3$ surface.