In this talk we will explore the different notions of a fractional-time derivative and their applications in physics. We will then focus on a specific problem and discuss existence, uniqueness, and regularity. We prove a De Giorgi-Nash-Moser type theorem for our problem. This is joint work with L. Caffarelli and A. Vasseur.